Up to $510,000 Section 179 tax deduction

Businesses have significant reasons to acquire and install capital equipment before the end of 2017, so plan now to maximize these important benefits.

Section 179 deduction

- Companies may be able to expense up to a $510,000 deduction on new or used equipment
- The maximum equipment investment amount eligible for the full $510,000 deduction is $2,030,000 before a dollar-for-dollar phase-out begins

Bonus depreciation

- Additional deductions may be available if you qualify for bonus depreciation
- An additional write-off of 50% of the undepreciated balance of capital expenditures and depreciable property (new equipment only) may be available.
- Equipment must be depreciable under the Modified Accelerated Cost Recovery System (MACRS) with a recovery period of 20 years or less

Speak to your tax and accounting advisors today to learn more about maximizing these and other incentives.
